The court convened promptly at ten o'clock. James Waters testified that he was standing on Fourteenth street talking with the deceased. when the defendant's party came along. The defendant walked up and looked into the witness face, but said nothing, and then walked up to the deface, but said nothing, and then walked up to the de-ceased, and as he did so he hunched him with his elbow. The defendant then passed on by, and as he did so turned and said to the deceased, "What the hell is the matter with you?" The de-ceased replied that there was nothing the matter with him, and said: "What the hell is the matter with you?" The defendant said: "I'll knock you're d-d head off." The deceased replied: "You won't do anything of the kind." The de-fendant then walked up to the deceased and kicked him, and while he was doing so he drew a revolver out of his right-hand coat pocket. The revolver out of his right-hand coat pocket. The deceased said: "Don't shoot me," and then the defendant shot him; after which be turned around and looked at the witness, and the latter dodged his head over and stepped off, with one foot in the gutter. By that time the deceased had fallen. The witness hallooed "murder!" "police!" and the defendant ran out Fourteenth street toward Sanson street. The cross-examination was producive of nothing new.

Major Bradley, referring to the adverse action taken on the resolution suggesting that the execu-tive committee contract for hall, &c., opposed the esolution asking the military committee to borrow ents. He did not want to see the military comnittee become responsible for anything. On motion of Mr. Worthington, the word "this," n the last line of the resolution, was changed to that," and then the resolution passed. General Hovey said that the circulars sent out uder the auspices of the committee were bearing ood fruit. They had received answers from two cennsylvania regiments and one Massachusetts egiment, stating that they had secured quarters.

held an informal meeting last evening, the principal object being to hear from the collectors. Many of the canvassers sent in their reports, and the financial condition of affairs was found to be in a healthy state than was at first supposed would be the case. Several statements were made also in regard to the ball-tickets. It was found that they were in great demand, having "first call," and the committee are much encouraged from the sale already made alone in this city to believe that the entire eight thousand will be disposed of. Many persons, doubtless entertaining the same on, are taking advantage of the opportunity and securing the tickets they desire ere the demand exceeds the supply.

ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH.

How the Edifice was Commenced-Its Interesting History.

The grand march of events knows no such thing as trifles. A single whispered word may change the whole course of a life, and upon the accident, as it appears to us, of a delayed message may hang the destiny of a nation. The society now known as St. Matthew's Parish owes the commencement of the enterprise which crystalized into the present church edifice to a woman and an episode of love. Cupid hurled his darts from a masked battery behind a pair of bright eyes, and demolished a human heart. The course of true love ran not smoothly, and the fair one became the bride of another. The heart of the lover turned toward the truths of the church, and the love for the creature, purified by suffering, turned toward the Creator. The need of a new church had been deeply felt for a long time, and to this worthy purpose the young man bent his energies. In 1838 John P. Donelau bought of W. S. Nicholls the ground on which St. Matthew's Church now

The society was not large, and very few of its members had more than enough of this world's goods for their own needs; but who ever knew a Catholic band to fail if a church was to be built? The task was indeed herculean, but to it were their best efforts devoted. On the 21st of September, 1838, the corner-stone of the building was laid. The day was fair and favorable in every way, and the procession made a most imposing appearance as it wended its way along the streets where numbers | The Wilhelmj Concert-"The Pirates" of delighted spectators had gathered to watch its progress. The city was bright with flags and flowers and banners, and the Marine Band enlivened the scene with music. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Ryder at St. Patrick's Church, and the ceremonies were conducted

BY BISHOP ECCLESSON. The untiring energy of one or two leaders in the movement pushed the enterprise rapidly forward, and on the 21st of September, 1840, just two years from the day of the laying of the corner-stone, the light-hearted and triumphant laborers assembled for the purpose of dedicating the temple to the ceased and assisting in carrying the body home.

James Jenkos testified to being in the house when the body was brought in and that there were delphia, preached the sermon, and Archbishon delphia, preached the sermon, and Archbishop Ecclesson and the clergy of the city assisted at the services. made the presentation in a speech replete with the oil of consolation. Of the original members it is believed but two remain—Mr. Nicholas Callan and one other. To the energy and devotion of Mr. Callan the church probably owes more than to any other man. His hand and heart were low to respond, which he did in an cloquent and appropriate address. Captain Thomason then presented to Sergeants Hartell and Valentine, respectively, the first and second prizes offered for years the venerable Father White, who died about two years ago, was the spiritual guide and coun-selor of this people. iey, H D, Miss, 1710 I st n w.

The citizens of Alexandria yesterday morning experienced a sensation that thoroughly waked up the ancient city. The town was shaken from Patterson, Blois, Fagan, Bradley, Hancock, and suburbs to the centre: in fact, the suburbs had baily. This choir ranks among the best in the most to do with the cause of the great commotion manifested. All this unusual stir arose from the suburbs to the centre; in fact, the suburbs had fact that on last Wednesday night the followers of Dr. Christian, "the cadaverer," had visited the cemeteries of the city and resurrected the bodies of two persons recently interred there. The ghouls were frightened away before they could secure their ghastly plunder, and left the bodies lying beside the graves. As this was the first experience of Alexandrians n grave-robbing, it was not strange that their eings were shaken with horror and their desire punish the brutes intense. The bodies were those of Miss Elmira Jacobs, about seventy years of age, daughter of the late Presley Jacobs, and sister of Mrs. W. H. McKnight, of Alexandria, who, after suffering for some time with an internal disease—supposed to be a tumor—that puzzled the medical profession. died in this city rather suddenly Sunday last. The remains were taken to Alexandria Tuesday last and interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery, of which Jerry Frazier, colored, is sexton. The other was that of Sarah Jane Simms (colored), daughter of Jerry Frazier, sexton of the Presbyterian Cemetery, who died last week of consumptions

About ten o'clock on Wednesday night Mr. Emmanuel Webb, who is sexton of some of the ceme-teries, and resides at the corner of the lane leading to the graveyards, heard the noise of a wagon on the road. Being suspicious that all was not right, he hailed the driver, who told him that he was going to Vinegar Hill, but had got on the wrong road. He went on. Mr. Webb decided to watch him, and saw the wagon turn into the lane leading to St. Panl's Cometery on the east side of which to St. Paul's Cemetery, on the east side of which there is an entrance to the Presbyterian Cemetery. The vehicle stopped, and then Mr. Webb, accom-panied by John Landon, colored, went up to the Presbyterian Cemetery, where the wagon was found. out the driver was missing. After waiting some ime, the driver came out of the grave-yard and had another man with him. When asked their business in the burial grounds at that hour they responded that they were in search of the route to Vinegar Hill; that they lived four miles in the country, and were in search of a man named Harris. Mr. Webb dispatched the colored man for a policeman, which order had a spurring effect upon has supplied its job department with a complete the wagon and drove off at a rapid rate. Officers Goodrich and Hayes responded to the message of Mr. Webb, and the three examined the cemetery. The body of Miss Jacobs was found lying at the foot of the grave, her clothes much disarranged, her hands clasped over the right shoulder, and the grave filled up. It was subse-ently taken to the undertaking establishment of . Wheatley. Yesterday morning, while Captain Webster and You can publish a three-line advertise-ment of want, rent, for sale, or lost, three times for the body of Sarah Jane Simms, which was shortly afterward reinterred. Near the grave of the latter Captain Webster picked up a piece of tissue paper wadded up and torn in three pieces, with one part gone. It proved to be a press dispatch, and what remained, being put together, read as follows: "Add Albany, N. Y. Owing to the scarcity— prices have gone up here; stove size Ch—ollars r Lackawanna (50." Yesterday afternoon Officers Arnold and Good rich arrested Bob Carpenter, Reuben Massey, Thomas Vaughn, and Charles Gaskins, colored grave diggers in the several cometeries, on sus-picion of being parties to the crime, and lodged them in the station-house for examination this morning.

The only case of grave despoiling ever known to have occurred in Alexandria before this was the case of Joseph Smith, who died some three years ago with the brain fever. When the family decided to take the body up and inter it elsewhere the discovery was made that the grave had been opened and the head removed from the body. In this case however, there are a deliberate attents. It is hoped that when the snow is all this case, however, there was a deliberate attempt not only to rob one grave, but others. The citigone the remains of our District Commissioners | zens are incensed over the affair. OUR LEGISLATORS.

Who They Are and Where They Are Lo-cated. Below will be found a correct list of the names and residences of the Senators and Representatives, as far as could be ascertained at a late hour this morning. The Republican will publish a full and complete list of every member of Con-gress, with his location, from time to time during SENATORS.

BUSINESS NOTES.

Wilbor's Cod-Liver Oil and Lime has now been before the public twenty years, and has steadily grown in favor and appreciation. This could not be the case unless the preparation was of high intrinsic value. The combination of the Phosphate of Lime with pure Cod-Liver Oil, as pre-pared by Dr. Wilbor, has produced a new phase in the treatment of Consumption and all diseases of the Lungs. It can be taken by the most delicate invalid without creating the disgusting nausea which is such an objection to the Cod-Liver Oil when taken without Lime. It is prescribed by the regular faculty. Sold by the proprietor, A. B. WILEOR, Chemist, Boston, and by all druggists. It has been well said that he who invents or it roduces a new and commendable amusement is to a certain extent a public benefactor. Upon this ground such honor is justly due the publisher of the new game of "U.S.," which being "founded on fact," as the novelists say, combines amusement and useful information in an admirable manner. This, together with its distinctive Ameri-
